WARE:

Twin girls were born to Lieut and Mrs Allen Blackledge of Washington, D.C. recently. Mrs. Blackledge was Dorothy Forrant, daughter of Mrs Mae Forrant of Eddy street, and lived here until she entered the government service a few years ago. While stationed in Japan she and Lieut Blackledge met.

Automobiles operated by Pierre Durand, of Pleasant street and Ralph Maxwell, of Castle street, collided at Church and Pleasant streets this afternoon, the Maxwell car being badly damaged. Durand was practically through the intersection, going west, and Maxwell was going up the Church street hill. The accident happened during a thunder shower. Motorcycle Officer Oliver Denis investigated.
